Can you walk me through Anja's career growth and design evolution?

Career Trajectory & Product Evolution

Anja's career evolved from a strong foundation in visual storytelling into senior-level digital product design. She leads end-to-end UX/UI processes—translating complex business requirements into scalable, human-centered SaaS and enterprise web applications.

Senior Web & UI/UX Designer | Prodwerk Studio
July 2025 – September 2026

Focus: Contributing to the development of digital products through rapid ideation, design strategy, and the creation of sophisticated user interfaces for high-growth companies.

~~Web & UI/UX Designer | Quantum Web~~
September 2023 – July 2025

Focus: Led end-to-end product design for complex software ecosystems, enterprise web applications, and scalable digital solutions.

Impact: Collaborate with engineering teams to turn technical product requirements into intuitive flows and scalable design systems

~~Web & UI/UX Designer | AxiomQ Ventures~~
September 2019 – September 2023

Focus: Mastering the end-to-end process from initial product discovery to final engineering hand-off.

Discovery & Strategy: Conducted User Research, defined MVPs, mapped User Journeys, and engineered cross-functional Swimlanes.

Architecture & Design System: Designed low-to-high fidelity wireframes and established robust, scalable design systems and style guides.

Stakeholder Alignment: Led client-facing strategy presentations to align design deliverables with business objectives.

~~Graphic Designer | ARVRtech~~
September 2017 – September 2019

Focus: Translated graphic design fundamentals into early-stage web, PC, and mobile interfaces.

~~Freelance Designer~~
2014– 2017

Focus: Applied design fundamentals to manage client relationships for visual identities, logos, and animations.
